

2023 SUMMER INTERN POSTING

DEPARTMENT
PUBLIC RELATIONS

POSITION
Summer Intern
Farm Bureau Center – Little Rock, Arkansas

JOB POSTING DATE
January 15, 2023

SUMMARY OF JOB

Provide technical & creative support for Arkansas Farm Bureau’s Public Relations department, while gaining valuable experience in support of Arkansas’ largest member organization. Opportunity for writing various Farm Bureau publications, including Front Porch (a bimonthly general interest membership magazine); Arkansas Agriculture (a magazine focused on agricultural issues); & Farm Bureau Press (the organization’s biweekly newsletter focused on membership activities). Other opportunities could include preparation of news releases; digital photography; shooting/editing video & script preparation for video newsletter; layout/design of newsletters, brochures & advertisements; website updates; marketing efforts; & event planning activities.

ELIGIBILITY / QUALIFICATIONS

Requires course work equivalent to a Junior level student status in agricultural communications, and a strong interest in furthering the cause of Arkansas agriculture. Requires strong communication skills, with demonstrated excellence in writing. Grade Point Average of 2.5 or better. Valid Arkansas Driver’s license with an acceptable driving record.

Required to report to/work from the Farm Bureau Center located in Little Rock. Work at least 10 – 12 continuous weeks during the period of May – August. Travel, including some overnight and out-of-state. Present self in professional/business manner.

EOE

Submit cover letter, resume, transcript, and letter(s) of recommendation by fax or email.

Closing Date: March 15, 2023

FAX: 501.228.1506

EMAIL: humanresources@afbic.com